REHABILITATION SOUGHT | Accused lived with family on fourth floor; vacated room for repairs; didn’t take permission for work

Man held a day after slab collapse kills 6 in Kalyan

NK Gupta
KALYAN

A day after six people were killed and six others injured after a fourth-floor concrete slab collapsed onto the ground in Kalyan, the Kolsewadi police on Tuesday night arrested a 40-year-old man in whose room renovation work was underway. The accused has been identified as Krishana Lalchandra Chaursiya, who lived with his family on the fourth floor and had recently vacated the room for repairs.

An FIR has been filed under sections 105 (culpable homicide not amounting to murder), 125(A)(B) (acts endangering life or personal safety of others) of the Bhartiya Nyay Sanhita, section 44 (permission for development on land) of the Maharashtra Regional and Town Planning Act, and section 2(2) (procedure for obtaining development permission) of the Unified Development Control Promotion Regulation.

Kalyanji Ghete, ACP from Kalyan division, said, “The accused was arrested hours after the incident. He was produced in court and remanded into police custody for further investigation. We are carrying out the investigation; if anyone is found responsible in this matter, then legal action will be taken. During the preliminary enquiry, it was shown that Chaursiya did not take any appropriate permission from the society and the authority concerned.”

The complaint was filed by Sachin Tamkhede, a ward officer of Kalyan-Dombivli Municipal Corporation (KDMC). The forensic team collected samples, including sand, soil, tiles, bricks, and cement from the Saptshrungi Co-operative Housing Society and sent them to a forensic lab in Mumbai to verify the quality of the materials used. A KDMC official said the residents have been shifted to Nutan Vidyalay in Kalyan East as a temporary shelter. KDMC is also providing them with breakfast and meals.

An eyewitness resident said, “I was seated outside the house with a neighbour when I heard a strong thud. I don’t know what it was, but I promptly stepped out of the building and found dust spreading across the area, and some people were trapped.”

Other residents claimed no notice was ever served and demanded rehabilitation. Among those killed were first-

MURDER OF EX-SENA CORPORATOR’S SON FIVE YEARS AGO

‘No body, no evidence’: Court acquits two men

Pranali Lotlikar
THANE

The principal district and sessions court in Thane has acquitted two men accused of murdering the 26-year-old son of former Shiv Sena corporator Manik Babu Patil, citing a lack of conclusive evidence and the failure of the police to produce the victim’s body.

The judgment, delivered by Principal Judge SB Agarwal, stated that the prosecution had failed to establish a complete chain of circumstantial evidence linking the accused to the crime. “Looking at all the aforesaid evidence, it cannot be said that the chain of circumstances is completely pointing to the guilt of the accused, especially in a case where the body of the deceased is not found,” the court observed.

The accused – Gaurav Rajesh Singh, 27, and Sachin

Victim Rakesh Manik Patil was shot dead at his residence on September 20, 2020

Sarjerao Patil, 25, the latter being the stepson of Manik Patil – were charged with shooting Rakesh Manik Patil point blank at his residence on September 20, 2020, and disposing of the body in Vashi Creek.

According to the prosecution, a long-standing family feud over property had created tension between Rakesh and his stepbrother, Sachin. On the morning of the incident, Rakesh, along with his driver Gaurav, had allegedly consumed alcohol at his father’s bungalow at Vijay Garden, Ghod Bunder Road. He was later shot while asleep on the sofa, and his body was allegedly dumped into the creek.

Rakesh’s wife had filed a missing person complaint at the Kasarvadavli police station on the same day. Manik Patil, who had been hospitalised at Bethany Hospital during the incident, initially suspected his son of robbing their home and also lodged a complaint against him. However, during further investigation, Gaurav Singh reportedly confessed to his involvement, leading to an FIR being registered for murder.

The prosecution based its case primarily on circumstantial evidence including CCTV footage, recovery of the alleged murder weapon (a country-made pistol), and the accused’s blood-stained clothes. However, the Forensic Science Laboratory (FSL) reports revealed only inconclusive human blood on the recovered items.

Court cancels bail of 4 after getting caught in another ₹29cr drug case

Charul Shah Joshi
MUMBAI

The special NDPS court has cancelled the bail of four persons arrested by the ATS for their links with 146kg of Mephedrone, seized in September 2019, after they were caught in another drug seizure worth Rs29 crore in Sangli.

The court, while cancelling their bail, observed that the accused had violated the liberty granted by the High Court intentionally. “They seem to be habitual offenders. The persons who are not obeying the court’s order are not entitled to be released on bail routinely. Hence, their bail needs to be cancelled,” the special court said.

The four accused namely Abdul Razak Shaikh, Suleman Shaikh, Jitendra Parmar and Sardar Patil, were arrested in 2019 by the Vikroli Kalachowki Unit of Maharashtra ATS. The four were granted bail by the HC in August 2024 over delay.

As per one of the conditions, the accused were asked to report to the unit on the first Monday of every month. It was informed to the court that they had stopped attending to the unit. On inquiry, it was revealed they were arrested in another drug case.

Hence, the prosecution moved a plea for the cancellation of their bail.

The other accused, apart from Pati,l failed to respond to the plea of the prosecution. Patil informed the court that they could not attend the court as the accused are arrested in the case registered with the Vita police station in Sangli.

The court, after hearing the pleadings, noted that, after being released on bail, they have committed another serious crime wherein a huge quantity of contraband, amounting to Rs29 crore, has been recovered from them with the co-accused.

Husband arrested for contract killing plot

Raina Assainar
NAVI MUMBAI

In the murder case of a 27-year-old woman who was found with throat slit, the Ulwe police have arrested her husband, the main accused, for plotting the murder on Sunday night. The victim, Alveena Adamli Khan, who ran a medical store with her husband, Kishorsingh Khangarsingh Rajput, in Sector 5, was returning home from a relative’s place in Mumbai when she was attacked just 50 metres from her residence. An unidentified man slit her throat with a sharp weapon and fled.

Police have arrested Rajput along with two women who allegedly helped arrange the contract killing, while two hired assassins remain at large.

The case was registered against an unknown assailant. However, a parallel probe by Crime Branch Unit-2 revealed her husband’s unusual calling activity. “He made nine calls to his wife while she was returning home to confirm her location. There were some calls made on unknown numbers, which were switched off after the murder, and hence our suspicion against Rajput grew,” a police officer privy to the investigation said.

During interrogation, Rajput initially denied involvement, but later confessed to hiring contract killers through intermediaries to kill his wife.
